Capitals and End Marks

Grades 1–3
Capitalization and punctuation

Name: _____ Date: _____

Every sentence begins with a capital letter. Names and the word I are always capitalized. Every sentence ends with an end mark: a period (.) for telling, a question mark (?) for asking, or an exclamation point (!) for strong feeling. Rewrite each sentence correctly.

Fix me	Write it correctly
the sun is hot
can we go outside
look out for the bee
my name is ana
do you like apples
we live in boston
what a big dog
i have a red bike
where is my hat
tom and i went to the store

© 2026 Georgette Green · Permission to copy for classroom use

Capitals and End Marks — Answer Key

Grades 1–3
Capitalization and punctuation

Sentences that show strong feeling may end with a period or an exclamation point. Accept either if the student can explain the choice.

Fix me	Written correctly
the sun is hot	The sun is hot.
can we go outside	Can we go outside?
look out for the bee	Look out for the bee!
my name is ana	My name is Ana.
do you like apples	Do you like apples?
we live in boston	We live in Boston.
what a big dog	What a big dog!
i have a red bike	I have a red bike.
where is my hat	Where is my hat?
tom and i went to the store	Tom and I went to the store.

© 2026 Georgette Green · Permission to copy for classroom use